Review of Appeal Process for Underage Tobacco Sale – Ryan Stack, Dave Thomas, & Dr. Phil Bondurant

Dr. Bondurant provided background information on the appeal of the fee for underage sale of tobacco.

Ryan Stack, Civil Attorney, provided a brief summary of background information on the appeal and procedures for underage sales of tobacco products, as well as the process that had occurred.

Olivia Gunnerson, Tobacco Enforcement Specialist, added information regarding the process.

Chair Cherniak and Board Members asked clarifying questions, to which Olivia Gunnerson and Ryan Stack answered. 4:12 PM

Dr. Bondurant shared that once his decision as the hearing officer was made and upheld, the Board of Health and the appeal meeting would determine if that decision was appropriate. Olivia Gunnerson offered more information about the offense. 4:27 PM

Dr. Bondurant stated that it was important to note why there were two legal council staff members present since there are new Board members and to prevent any confusion in the event of a future appeal.

Dave Thomas, Chief Civil Deputy Attorney, provided information on the process of separation between attorneys in their office if an appeal were to occur. Ryan Stack would represent Health Department staff, and then he could represent the Board of Health in a neutral and unbiased legal council in regards to a hearing. 4:32 PM

Dr. Bondurant and Chair Cherniak thanked the attorneys and Olivia Gunnerson. 4:33 PM

Attachment: FY24 BOH Update.pdf

Aaron Newman, Behavioral Health Coordinator, provided an update regarding mental health in our community to the Board. In FY22, 6,415 individuals accessed care within the public network, which is comprised of Medicare and state-funded individuals. He provided information on some of the concerning FY23 trends. 4:37 PM

MCOT hours used to run 24/7, 365 days a year, but are now limited to typical business hours due to being understaffed. Aaron Newman stated that spring has a higher rate of mental illness and suicidality within the communities. The top 3 diagnoses for adults are anxiety, depression, and relationship counseling. The top 3 diagnoses for youth are ADHD, depression, and suicidal ideation. 4:42 PM.

Board member Alissa Van Wie and Chair Cherniak asked clarifying questions, to which Aaron Newman answered. 4:46 PM
