CHILD CARE PROVIDER APPRECIATION DAY
SUMMIT COUNTY, UTAH

Whereas Child Care Aware® of America, the Early Childhood Alliance, and other organizations nationwide are recognizing Child Care Providers on this day; and

Whereas Over half the children under the age of six nationwide are estimated to spend some time in a nonparental care arrangement on a weekly basis. This care provides critical enrichment opportunities and nurtures development for children of all backgrounds and is a vital building block of our state economy; and

Whereas The COVID-19 pandemic has created tremendous hardship for childcare providers and the families of Summit County who depend on them; yet these providers have continued to meet the needs of families while risking their health and financial stability to remain open; and

Whereas Our future depends on the quality of the early childhood experiences provided to young children today and recognizes that support for high-quality childcare represents a worthy commitment to our children's future.

Now, therefore, be it resolved that the Summit County Council does hereby proclaim May 6, 2022, as Child Care Provider Appreciation Day in Summit County and urges all citizens to recognize Child Care Providers for their important work.
